Guide to the Jennie Sheldon Bowden letters
MSS.2269
Finding aid prepared by Christen Robichaud

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
October 26, 2010
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information .............................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical/Historical note................................................................................................................................. 4
Scope and Contents note....................................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information ..................................................................................................................................... 4
Related Materials .................................................................................................................................................. 5
Collection Inventory ............................................................................................................................................ 6
Summary Information

Repository  W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama

Title  Jennie Sheldon Bowden Letters

Date [inclusive]  1872-1937

Extent  0.2 Linear feet (Thirty-three letters)

Language  English

Abstract  Letters written to and from Jennie Sheldon Bowden, who lived in Wisconsin. The letters discuss daily life, family, camp meetings, and teaching.

Preferred Citation note

Jennie Sheldon Bowden Letters, W. S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama
Biographical/Historical note

Ray and Beulah were school teachers. Jennie, Ray, and Beulah lived in Wisconsin. Ray and Beulah are Jennie's children.

Scope and Contents note

Thirty-three letters written to and by Jennie Sheldon Bowden of Brodhead, Wisconsin. Some of the letters are to and from her children Ray and Beulah. Many letters from her friend Rebecca Meigs discuss camp meetings, Christianity, and daily life.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama October 2010

Conditions Governing Access note

None

Conditions Governing Use note

None

Provenance

Donated by Wade Hall, 2006

Processing Information note

Processed by Christen Robichaud, 2010
Related Materials

Related Archival Materials note

Beulah Bowden Letters, W. S. Hoole Special Collections Library
Collection Inventory

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Box</th>
<th>Folder</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Outgoing Letters--Jennie Sheldon Bowden</td>
<td>SC0044</td>
<td>2269.01</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Incoming Letters--Jennie Sheldon Bowden</td>
<td>SC0044</td>
<td>2269.02</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>