Preferred Citation note

Mr. Canly Scotland and European travel diary, University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama
Biographical/Historical note

In 1860, Canly was a young man from Mobile, Alabama, visiting with family in Scotland, Belgium, and Germany.

Scope and Contents note

The collection contains a very detailed travel diary of a young man and his family traveling in Scotland and Europe in 1860. He describes learning how to make a pot of coffee, fishing expeditions, and having to apply to the American ministry in London for a passport after having left his in Dundee, Scotland.

There is a note in pencil inside the front cover that states, "Diary kept by my father when in Europe 16 yr old."
