Guide to the John Henry Faber papers
MSS.0499

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
March 14, 2013
Table of Contents

- Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
- Biographical/Historical note .................................................................................................................... 4
- Scope and Contents note .......................................................................................................................... 4
- Administrative Information ....................................................................................................................... 4
- Controlled Access Headings ...................................................................................................................... 5
- Collection Inventory ...................................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

Repository: University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama

Creator: Faber, John, 1918-1993

Title: John Henry Faber papers

Date [inclusive]: 1933-1988

Extent: 0.1 Linear feet (photocopies)

Language: English

Abstract: Photocopies of reports and biographical sketches written by John Henry Faber after his retirement from the Eastman Kodak Company, as well as a section on early Alabama television.

Preferred Citation note

The John Henry Faber papers, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

John Henry Faber was born on 13 February 1918 in New York City, New York, to John Martin and Jennie F. Faber. He studied journalism at the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa County, Alabama, from 1937 until 1941. While at the University, he worked for the UA News Bureau and freelanced for The Birmingham News (Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama). In 1941, he left the University and entered the United States Army Air Corps. After leaving the Air Corps, he remained in Alabama as Director of Photography for The Birmingham News and its television station, WAFM-TV.

In 1950, Faber accepted a position as Technical Sales Representative for the Eastman Kodak Company, based in New York City. He remained in that position until he retired in 1983 and received many awards during that time.

Scope and Contents note

This collection consists of photocopies of reports and biographical sketches written by John Henry Faber after his retirement from the Eastman Kodak Company. There is also a section on early Alabama television.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama January 2009

Revision Description

March 2013

Conditions Governing Access note
None

Conditions Governing Use note
None

Provenance
Gift of John Faber, 1991

Processed by
Martha Bace, 2008; updated by Martha Bace, 2013

Controlled Access Headings

Corporate Name(s)

- WAFM (Television station : Birmingham, Ala.).

Genre(s)

- Reports

Subject(s)

- Alabama
- Biography
- Community and Place
- Journalism--Alabama--History
- Technology and Industry
- Television broadcasting—History
- University of Alabama
- University of Alabama--Alumni and alumnae.
Collection Inventory

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Papers</th>
<th>Box</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2635</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>