Pat Fahey Letter, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama
Biographical/Historical note

Fort Scott Camp was a Catholic summer camp established in 1922 on 250 acres along the Great Miami River in Harrison, Ohio. The residential camp program included horseback riding, drama, environmental awareness, sports skills, archery, swimming, and spiritual growth. It also included overnight tent camping designed specifically for teens, with backpacking, learning survival skills and opportunities for senior campers to take a whitewater river canoe trip.

It closed in 1989 because of concerns about the nearby Fernald Nuclear plant.

Scope and Contents note

This collection contains a letter from Pat Fahey in Fort Scott Camp to Grace Fahey of Canton, Ohio. While the envelope is addressed to Grace Fahey, the letter itself is addressed to "Mother and Dad." In the letter he thanks them for the money they sent. He also mentions that he'd been kept out of swimming for a while because he'd had a fall, and that only a few boys in his cabin like him.
