Guide to the Richard Zoellner color lithographs
MSS.4082

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
January 09, 2015
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical/Historical note .................................................................................................................. 4
Scope and Contents note ....................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information .................................................................................................................... 4
Controlled Access Headings .................................................................................................................. 5
Collection Inventory ............................................................................................................................... 6
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Creator - Lithographer</td>
<td>Zoellner, Richard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Richard Zoellner color lithographs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>about 1955</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>2.2 Linear feet</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abstract</td>
<td>Color lithographs created by Zoellner while teaching and researching lithography at the University of Alabama.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation note

Richard Zoellner color lithographs, University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama
Biographical/Historical note

Richard Charles Zoellner, son of Charles W. and Emma M. Zoellner, was born on June 30, 1908 in Ohio. He graduated from the Cincinnati Art Academy and studied in New York City and Mexico. He maintained his own studio in Cincinnati from 1933 to 1942, and received a number of public and private commissions from the U. S. Treasury's Section of Fine Art, which included murals for a number of U. S. Post Offices, as well as commissions for paintings for the U. S. Marine hospitals. In the early 1940s, he joined the faculty of the University of Alabama, and in 1945, established one of only two fine art printmaking departments in the Southeast at the time.

Scope and Contents note

The collection contains twelve original lithographs created by University of Alabama professor Richard Zoellner while working on Research Committee Project #230, "Research in Color Lithography"

Administrative Information

Publication Information

University Libraries Division of Special Collections, The University of Alabama January 2015

Conditions Governing Access note

none

Provenance

gift of Kathrina B. James, 1955

Processed by Controlled Access Headings

Genre(s)

- Lithographs

Personal Name(s)

- James, Kathrina Brown
Collection Inventory

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lithographs</th>
<th>Box</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4082.001</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>