Biographical/Historical note

James Grisamore lived in Valparaiso, Indiana, and was a schoolteacher. He married Carrie Seaman on June 8, 1892.

Scope and Contents note

The collection contains fourteen letters of mostly incoming correspondence addressed to James W. Grisamore, mainly from his brothers and his sister Nola. Letters brought news from the town of Toledo, Indiana, where most of the family lived, and updates on various friends and neighbors. The last letter from William Grisamore told of Nola's death after an illness.

Correspondence from Grisamore's friend and sister-in-law, Hattie Seaman, can be found in the Hattie Seaman Correspondence, W. S. Special Collections Library.
