Preferred Citation note

Cornelia and Hans Hanson papers, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

Cornelia (nee Gabrielson) and Hans Hanson lived in Viroqua, Wisconsin. They had a daughter named Luella.

Scope and Contents note

Contains fifteen letters written by various friends and relatives to Cornelia and Hans Hanson of Viroqua, Wisconsin. The letters mainly discuss news of family members and acquaintances: illnesses, births, and deaths. Five letters were from Cornelia's often sickly mother. Two were addressed to the Hansons' daughter, Luella. There are also wedding and shower invitations and a Christmas card. Letters were mostly written from various places in Wisconsin, with one letter from friends in Gary, South Dakota. Also contains a blank "Questionnaire to be filled out by legally responsible relatives."
