Preferred Citation note

Forrest Neumeyer Letter, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

In 1919, Forrest Neumeyer was a soldier in the American Expeditionary Forces. The AEF were sent to Europe during World War One to fight alongside the British and French.

Scope and Contents note

The collection contains a letter, written on Y.M.C.A. stationary, from Forrest Neumeyer, a soldier in the American Expeditionary Forces, to Ruth Frantz of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, about the rainy and cold conditions overseas. He tells her that the troops have been told they will soon receive leave to England and Nice, France.
