Guide to the James R. McConochin Letter
MSS.2609
Finding aid prepared by Lydia Wommack

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
September 15, 2010
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information ................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical/Historical note......................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Contents note.............................................................................................................................. 4
Administrative Information ......................................................................................................................... 4
Collection Inventory ...................................................................................................................................... 5
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>James R. McConochin Letter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date</td>
<td>1827 December 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.1 Linear feet 1 letter</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abstract</td>
<td>Dr. James R. McConochin of Murfreesborough, perhaps in Tenneessee, writes to brother-in-law Daniel J. Glaughter at the Culpeper Court House, Virginia, of his wife's illness, his medical practice, and the search for a new servant.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation note

James R. McConochin Letter, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

Dr. James R. McConochin of Murfreesborough (Tennessee?) writes to brother-in-law Daniel J. Glaughter at the Culpeper Court House, Virginia. James is married to Susan.

Scope and Contents note

Dr. James R. McConochin of Murfreesborough writes to brother-in-law Daniel J. Glaughter at the Culpeper Court House, Virginia, of business and his wife's illness. She is under his own care and is not doing well. He describes her persistent cough and fever. The letter discusses, among other things, his medical practice and servants.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama November 2009

Provenance

Gift of Wade Hall, 2006.

Processed by

Lydia Wommack, 2009.
Collection Inventory

| James R. McConochin Letter | SC0029 | 2609.1 |