Abstract: A letter Lizzie received from her cousin in Cheltenham about the family, the Whiskey Ring Scandal, and schooling debates.

Preferred Citation note
Letter to Lizzie, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Scope and Contents note

The collection contains a letter Lizzie received from her cousin in Cheltenham about the family. The Whiskey Ring trial had began, and many wealthy and affluent members of the community had been implicated. (The Whiskey Ring Scandal trials began in Jefferson City, Missouri in October 1875.) Her cousin also told her about a feud between Catholic and Protestant priests over the control of the public school system in St. Louis.
