Guide to the Joseph Zeb Hearst and Company Daybook
MSS.0792

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
November 05, 2009
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information .................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical/Historical note ...................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Contents note ............................................................................................................................. 4
Administrative Information ......................................................................................................................... 4
Summary Information

Repository | W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama
--- | ---
Title | Joseph Zeb Hearst and Company Daybook
Date [inclusive] | 1859-1862
Extent | 0.1 Linear feet 1 inch (ledger)
Language | English
Abstract | A ledger contains daily entries for purchases from this Carlowville and Richmond, Dallas County, Alabama general store owned by Joseph Zeb Hearst.

Preferred Citation

Joseph Zeb Hearst and Company daybook, W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama.
Biographical/Historical note

General Store in Carlowville and Richmond, Dallas County, Alabama, originally operated by Joseph Zeb Hearst and later by J.D. Allison, Jr., Hearst's son-in-law

Scope and Contents note

A ledger containing daily entries for purchases. From October 1859 through January 1860 the entries are headed Carlowville; from February to June 1860, accounts receivable, no location; from March 1861 on, entries are headed Richmond (Alabama). From January 30, 1862, headed Abner M. Coleman & Co., Richmond.

Administrative Information

Publication Information

W.S. Hoole Special Collections Library, The University of Alabama February 2008

Provenance

unknown

Processed by unknown