Scope and Contents note

This collection consists of a handwritten original paper and typescript copy containing the names of family members and stories about the family’s experience during Rousseau's Raid, July 10-22, 1864, in which a Union Army force raided from Decatur, Alabama, to the southward. These include accounts of hiding mules to avoid their seizure, a "Yankee trick" for stealing honey, and saving the house from being burned by using a Masonic distress sign.
