Rank the relevancy of your Source

1. Completely unrelated to my research question
2. Contains some useful information
3. Seems to be mostly on the topic I'm researching
4. Provides some evidence that supports or refutes my claim
5. Is specifically about my research topic and provides evidence and/or background info that I can use

How Would You Classify this Source?

(place a checkmark next to each point that you think applies to your source)

- [ ] Popular
  - Rapid publication process that allows for the quick sharing of information
  - Intended to share information to non-experts
  - Informal, easy to read and understand

- [ ] Scholarly
  - Rigorous publication process
  - Includes an abstract and/or bibliography, intended for research
  - Formal, technical, filled with jargon.

Justify the usefulness of this source by writing a few sentences. Explain how publication process, currency, and authority (author’s reputation and credentials, publication’s reputation, etc.) play into your judgment of this source?